Sponsorship Document

August 24th — 31th, 2024
Bolu Abant İzzet Baysal University

Our Summer Camp

The Free/Libre Software Summer Camp, organized by the Turkish Linux Users Association (LKD), will be held in cooperation with Bolu Abant İzzet Baysal University this year. The event will take place on the campus of Bolu Abant İzzet Baysal University in Bolu city between 24 - 31 August 2024, for eight days.

Turkish Linux Users Association's free training program, launched in 1999, offers a unique training environment for students, eager learners from the general public, and public and private sector employees from all over Turkey.

The training is held in parallel classes addressing different levels of knowledge in various fields, participation is free of charge.
